- Due to rising inflation, US Federal Reserve increased the interest rate. This led to the strengthening of the US Dollar.
- There is a sustained outflow of capital from India, which also led to the depreciation of the rupee. The data from NSDL showed that so far in 2022, foreign portfolio investors (FPIs) sold more than Rs 1.3 lakh crore worth of Indian equities. Recently, India's foreign exchange reserves also fell below $600 billion.
